(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a member shall hold office for a period of four years from the date of his appointment, and upon such terms and conditions as the President may determine at the time of his appointment.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), two of the first four appointed members shall vacate office after a period of two years which shall be specified in their letters of appointment.

(5) A retiring member shall be eligible for re-appointment:

Provided that a member who retires after holding office for four years shall not be eligible for re-appointment for a period exceeding two years.

(3) A member may be removed from office by the President for inability to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or from any other cause) or for misbehaviour.

PART IV

CITIZENSHIP BY REGISTRATION

12. (1) The Board may cause any person not of full age who is the child of a citizen to be registered as a citizen upon application made in the prescribed manner by a parent or guardian of such person.

(2) When the Board is satisfied that any person not of full age has associations by way of descent, residence or otherwise with Zambia which would justify his registration as a citizen, the Board may cause such person to be registered as a citizen.

13. (1) The President may as a token of honour cause to be registered as a citizen any person who in his opinion has done signal honour or rendered distinguished service to Zambia.

(2) The President may cause to be registered as a citizen any person not otherwise entitled to or eligible for citizenship of Zambia with respect to whom special circumstances exist which, in the opinion of the President, warrant such registration.

15. (1) A woman to whom the provisions of Article 8 (1) (b) of the Constitution apply may make an application to the Board for registration as a citizen in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) A woman who applies for registration under the provisions of subsection (1) shall produce to the Board evidence of the renunciation of her citizenship of a country other than Zambia in such manner as may be prescribed.

(g) has not been refused registration as a citizen within the period of five years immediately preceding his application.

(3) Any person born in Zambia before the commencement of the Constitution whose father was not a citizen at the time of such person's birth and who ceased to be a citizen by reason of his failure to renounce his citizenship by descent, may make an application to the Board for registration as a citizen; and the Board may grant such application upon the condition that the applicant shall produce a certificate of renunciation of his original citizenship within three months from the date on which he is notified that his application for registration as a citizen has been granted.

(4) The Board may, on application in writing, grant to any person to whom subsection (3) applies an extension of the period in which he may renounce his other citizenship.

(5) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3) where, under the law of a country other than Zambia a person cannot renounce his citizenship of that other country, he need not make such renunciation but he may instead make such declaration concerning such citizenship in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) The Board shall cause every person to whom a certificate of registration has been granted to be notified of the time within which and the person before whom he may take the oath of allegiance or produce a certificate of renunciation.

(7) A certificate of registration shall be of force and effect only when the person to whom it has been granted has taken the oath of allegiance and produced a certificate of renunciation, and, subject to the provisions of subsection (4), that person shall become a citizen by registration on the day when such certificate becomes of force and effect.
17. Application for registration as a citizen under sections fifteen and sixteen shall not be made by or on behalf of any person who, under any law in force in Zambia, is adjudged or otherwise declared to be of unsound mind.

18. The period to be taken into account in computing the period of ten years mentioned in Article 8(i)(c)(ii) of the Constitution shall be that period during which a person has the right to reside in Zambia by virtue of an entry permit.

(As amended by No. 17 of 1986)

19. (1) A person to whom the provisions of Article 6 of the Constitution apply and who is a citizen or has a claim to the citizenship of a country other than Zambia shall cease to be a citizen upon attaining the age of twenty-two years unless, after attaining the age of twenty-one years, he renounces his citizenship of that other country or of any claim thereto in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Any citizen of full age who by voluntary act, other than marriage, acquires the citizenship of a country other than Zambia, or who does any act indicating his intention to adopt or make use of such other citizenship, shall cease to be a citizen on the date of his acquisition of the citizenship of that other country.

(4) A person to whom the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of Article 11 (3) of the Constitution apply shall cease to be a citizen at the expiration of three months after he becomes a citizen unless he renounces his citizenship of a country other than Zambia, takes the oath of allegiance and makes and registers a declaration of his intention concerning residence in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5) For the purposes of this Part, where under the law of a country other than Zambia a person cannot renounce his citizenship of that other country, he need not make such renunciation but he may instead make such declaration concerning such citizenship in such manner as may be prescribed.

(As amended by No. 17 of 1986)

20. Where, under the provisions of this Part or of Part II of the Constitution, the period within which any person is required to make a renunciation of citizenship or take the oath of allegiance or make and register a declaration of his intention concerning residence is prescribed, the Board may grant an extension of such period, and, where such extension is granted, the person concerned shall cease to be a citizen only if, at the expiration of the extended period, he has not made the renunciation or taken the oath of allegiance or made and registered a declaration of his intention concerning residence, as the case may be.

21. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Part, a person who ceases to be a citizen and who satisfies the Board that at the time of the cesser of his citizenship of Zambia that he was unaware of such cesser may make application to the Board for his citizenship of Zambia to be restored.

22. (1) A person to whom the provisions of section thirteen apply may be deprived of his citizenship of Zambia if, at any time, the President decides that his continued citizenship of Zambia is not conducive to the public good.

(2) Any decision of the President depriving any citizen of his citizenship of Zambia under subsection (1) shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal or review in any court.

(3) The Board may, subject to the provisions of this section, by order, deprive any citizen (other than a citizen to whom the provisions of the Constitution apply) of his citizenship of Zambia if the Board is satisfied—

(a) that the citizen has shown himself by act or speech to be disloyal or disaffected towards Zambia;

(b) that the citizen has, during any war in which Zambia was engaged, unlawfully traded or communicated with the enemy or been engaged in or associated with any business that was to his knowledge carried on in such manner as to assist an enemy in that war;

(d) that the registration as a citizen was obtained by means of fraud, false representation, the concealment of any material fact or through some other corrupt practice; or

(e) that the citizen has, to the satisfaction of the Board, been guilty of currency smuggling or of harbouring criminals or prohibited immigrants.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (3), no period—

(a) spent in the discharge of his duties outside Zambia by a person in the service of the Government; or
(b) during which a person was absent from Zambia by reason of his service with an international organisation of which the Government was, at the time of such service, a member; shall be taken into account for the purpose of determining the length of a person’s absence from Zambia.

(5) The Board shall not deprive a person of his citizenship under this section unless the Board is satisfied that it is not conducive to the public good that such person should continue to be a citizen.

(6) Before making an order under this section, the Board shall give the person against whom the order is proposed to be made notice in writing informing him of the ground on which it is proposed to be made and of his right to have his case referred for inquiry as provided in subsection (7).

(7) If a person notified in pursuance of the provisions of subsection (6) applies for an inquiry within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, the Board shall refer the case for inquiry and report to a commissioner appointed by the Board for the purpose.

(8) The powers, rights and privileges of a commissioner appointed in terms of subsection (7) shall be the same as those conferred on a commissioner by the Inquiries Act, and the provisions of that Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to an inquiry under this section and to a person summoned to give evidence or giving evidence at the inquiry.

(9) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a commissioner unless he is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court, or the High Court.

23. (1) Repealed by Act No. 17 of 1986

(2) A citizen of full age and capacity who—

(a) is also a citizen of a country other than Zambia; or

(b) satisfies the Board that he will, after renouncing his citizenship of Zambia, become a citizen of another country; may, in such manner as may be prescribed, make a declaration of renunciation of his citizenship of Zambia and the Board shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), cause such declaration to be registered.

(3) The Board may decline to register any declaration of renunciation of citizenship made during any war in which Zambia may be engaged.
(4) Subject to the provisions of subsection (5), the person making a declaration of renunciation of citizenship of Zambia shall cease to be a citizen upon registration of such declaration.
