

Rhodesia Government Notice 47 of 1977
[as amended at 1st May 2010]¹.

[ACT 36/1976

National Registration Regulations, 1977

IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Internal Affairs has, in terms of section 12 of the National Registration Act, 1976, made the following regulations:—

Title

1. These regulations may be cited as the National Registration Regulations, 1977.

Interpretation of terms

2. In these regulations—

"applicant" means an applicant for registration;

"citizen" means a citizen of Rhodesia;

"customs officer" means a person who is an officer as defined in section 2 of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 177];

"form" means the appropriate form set out in the First Schedule;

"immigration officer" means a person who is an immigration officer as defined in section 2 of the Immigration Act [Chapter 27];

"indigenous African" means an African who is descended, through the male line, from a member of one of the tribes ordinarily resident in Rhodesia and who was—

- (a) born in Rhodesia; or
- (b) born outside Rhodesia, his father being at the time of birth domiciled in Rhodesia;

“ non-indigenous African" means an African who is not an indigenous African and who-

- (a) was born in Rhodesia; or
- (b) is a citizen of Rhodesia.

Prescribed age

3. The age prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of "resident" in section 2 of the Act shall be sixteen years.

¹ This document reflects the regulations as amended at 1st May 2010. None of the amendments has updated the regulations to refer to the revised version of the principal Act (1996) or to change references to “Rhodesia” to “Zimbabwe”, etc. The principal Act is now cited as the National Registration Act [Chapter 10:17]. Veritas.

Persons not included as residents

4. The following classes of persons are prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (c) of the definition of "resident" in section 2 of the Act—

- (a) persons employed in Rhodesia in the service of the government of a foreign country who are not citizens of Rhodesia; and
- (b) spouses or children of persons referred to in paragraph (a).

Application for registration

5. (1) An application shall be made in form N.R. 1 and shall disclose such particulars as are required by that form.

(2) An applicant may request that any of the following details be recorded and disclosed on his identity document—

- (a) his blood group;
- (b) that he is allergic to morphia, penicillin or serum;
- (c) that he suffers from diabetes, epilepsy, haemophilia or porphyria.

(3) An applicant who makes a request referred to in subsection (2) shall submit with his application a certificate signed by a medical practitioner certifying that the information given in request refers to the applicant:

Provided that—

- (i) a registration officer may accept any other evidence which is acceptable to the Registrar-General as proof that the information given in the request refers to applicant;
- (ii) a request relating to the blood group of the applicant may be accompanied by a certificate from a blood transfusion service recognized by the Registrar-General.

(4)² Any applicant referred to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 6 of the Act shall apply for registration—

- (a) during the period specified for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of that section in respect of the designated area concerned, at any place specified for the purposes of that paragraph;
- (b) after the expiration of the period referred to in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) in the case of a designated area specified in the Seventh Schedule, at any place specified in the Seventh Schedule opposite the name of the designated area concerned;
 - (ii) in the case of a designated area not specified in the Seventh Schedule, at the office of the district commissioner whose district comprises the designated area.

Notice that person has applied for registration

6. A notice referred to in subsection (1) of section 7 of the Act shall be given in form N.R. 1b.

² Subsection as inserted by RGN 367/1979.

Form of identity document

7. An identity document shall be issued in form N.R. 2.

Classification of residents

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, applicants shall be classified as citizens, non-indigenous African citizens, non-citizen residents or aliens, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule.

(2) An applicant shall not be classified as a non-citizen resident unless—

- (a) he is in possession of a permanent resident permit issued by the Department of Immigration; or
- (b) in the case of a person who is not an African and who alleges that he entered Rhodesia from Nyasaland or Northern Rhodesia during the subsistence of the former Federation, he satisfies the registration officer that he is lawfully resident in Rhodesia.

(3) An applicant shall not be classified as an alien unless he is the holder of a valid travel document and can prove that his entry into Rhodesia was lawful.

Codes

9. In completing an identity document for an applicant, the appropriate codes shall be used as follows—

- (a) to indicate the status of the applicant, in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule;
- (b) to indicate medical information relating to the applicant, in accordance with the provisions of the Third Schedule;
- (c) to indicate the district in which the applicant is registered and his district of origin, in accordance with the Fourth Schedule;
- (d) to indicate the personal particulars of the applicant, in accordance with the Fifth Schedule.

Surrender of identity documents

10. (1) On the death of the holder of an identity document—

- (a) it shall be the duty of every person who is required in terms of the Births and Deaths Registration Act [Chapter 30] to report the death of the holder to search for his identity document and to forward the identity document to a registration officer or to inform a registration officer that he has been unable to find the identity document;
- (b) any person who comes into possession of his identity document shall forthwith forward it to a registration officer.

(2) If the holder of an identity document intends to leave Rhodesia for a period of more than twelve months, he shall Surrender his identity document to a registration officer or immigration officer at the port of exit from Rhodesia.

(3) A registration officer or immigration officer who receives an identity document in terms of subsection (1) or (2) shall forthwith forward it to the Registrar-General and, if he has received it in terms of subsection (2), shall notify the Registrar-General that the holder of the identity document has left Rhodesia for a period of more than twelve months.

(4) The Registrar-General shall—

- (a) forthwith destroy any identity document forwarded to him which was received by the registration officer in terms of subsection (1);
- (b) retain for a period of two years any identity document forwarded to him which was received by the registration officer or immigration officer in terms of sub-section (2) and shall thereafter destroy such document unless it has been reclaimed by the person to whom it was issued.

Application for duplicate identity document

10A. (1) An application for the issue of a duplicate identity document to replace one which has been lost or mutilated shall be made in writing to a registration officer, and, if waiver of any portion of the appropriate fee is sought in terms of the proviso to subsection (1) of section 13, shall be supported by a statement of the circumstances of the loss or mutilation or the identity document and of the financial position of the applicant.

(2) Where an application in terms of subsection (1) concerns an identity document which has been mutilated, that identity document shall be surrendered to the registration officer.

. Application for correction of error in identity document

10B. A registered person whose identity document contains an error shall—

- (a) apply to the Registrar-General or a registration officer for the correction of the error; and
- (b) produce such documents and provide such information in relation to the error as may be required by the Registrar-General or registration officer, as the case may be; and
- (c) surrender the identity document to the Registrar-General or registration officer, as the case may be, for the issue of a replacement identity document.

Notification of changes in registered particulars

10C. (1) A registered person whose forename or surname appearing on his identity document is subsequently changed, shall within one month after the change, give to the Registrar-General or a registration officer written notification of the change, and shall—

- (a) in the case of a change of name by marriage or notarial deed, produce a copy of the relevant marriage certificate or notarial deed;
- (b) in the case of a change of name other than by a change referred to in paragraph (a), provide such information in relation thereto as may be required by the Registrar-General or registration officer, as the case may be.

(2) Where any change other than a change referred to in subsection (1) occurs in any particulars appearing on an identity document, the holder shall within one month after the change, give to the Registrar-General or a registration officer written notification of the change, and shall produce such documents and provide such information in relation thereto as may be required by the Registrar-General or registration officer, as the case may be.

(3) Where a registered person wishes additional medical information to be included on his identity document, he shall make written application therefore to the Registrar-General or a registration officer, and shall produce such documents and provide such information in relation thereto as may be required by the Registrar-General or registration officer, as the case may be.

(4) When notification is given or application is made in terms of this section, the existing identity document shall be surrendered to the Registrar-General or registration officer, as the case may be, for the issue of a replacement identity document.

Authorized persons

11.(1) The following persons prescribed to be authorized persons for the purposes of subsection (3) of section 8 of the Act—

- (a) the Secretary for Labour and social welfare;
- (b) the Attorney-General;
- (c) the Director of Security Manpower;
- (d) the Chief Immigration Officer;
